

"Your darkest moments don't define you. What happens AFTER does."

OUR MISSION

At EPIC After, we believe surviving is only the beginning. Our mission is to help women rediscover confidence, connection, purpose, and joy after life's biggest plot twists. This OCTOBER, we're bringing together 10-12 women who have faced any type of cancer for a transformational weekend. Through workshops, meaningful conversations, adventure, professional photography, confidence-building experiences, and community, our hope is simple: no warrior should pay a dollar to attend.

OUR GOAL

Our goal is to fully fund this retreat so every warrior can attend at NO COST. Any additional sponsorships will help us continue building future EPIC After retreats. Important Note: Happily EPIC After LLC is not a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, and sponsorships are not tax-deductible charitable contributions.
